

The recruitment and the professional career advancement of civil servants in institutions of Bosnia and Herzegovina are based upon open competition and professional merit. This web page is dedicated for vacancies announcements, and since the general requirement that a person has to meet to be appointed as a civil servant is having Bosnia and Herzegovina citizenship, all the notices on this part of our web site is available only on official languages of Bosnia and Herzegovina (that is; Bosnian, Serbian and Croatian).

For more information on civil service recruitment system, don't hesitate to contact our Recruitment department